How the new Turin urban plan can contribute to a more sustainable food urban system

Guido Montanari, Deputy Mayor, Turin
Guido Montanari, Vice Mayor and Councillor for Planning and Construction, Municipality of Turin

HOW THE NEW TURIN URBAN PLAN CAN CONTRIBUTE TO A MORE SUSTAINABLE FOOD URBAN SYSTEM
THE HISTORIC STRUCTURE OF THE LANDSCAPE: TURIN IN THE ROMAN AGE (28-29 B.C.)
REGGIA DI VENARIA
LEGACY AND ECONOMIC «BOOM»
THE END OF PRODUCTION AT LINGOTTO (FIAT), 1982
Main strategies:
Restoration of the city centre
Reorganisation of the urban structure
Re-use of some industrial zones
Urban marketing

Main projects:
Spina Centrale
Corso Marche
Asse del Po
NEW TOOLS

European programmes for urban revitalisation

Integrated actions of urban regeneration

Physical and social redevelopment
RESTORATION OF THE CITY CENTRE: THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL AREA
THE CINEMA MUSEUM
THE INFRASTRUCTURES
COVERING OF THE RAILWAY AND NEW AVENUE NAMED «SPINA CENTRALE» (BACKBONE)
SPINA 2 - PORTA SUSA
THE REVIEW OF THE URBAN PLAN OF THE CURRENT ADMINISTRATION, SUPERVISED BY THE MAYOR, MRS. CHIARA APPENDINO

Topics:
- Environment as a resource
- Identity and beauty
- Wellness and quality of the life
- Involvement of the Youth
- Job, production and commerce
- Make the rules easier
- Beyond the limits
GUIDELINES TO REVIEW THE URBAN PLAN IN ORDER TO IMPROVE AN ENVIRONMENTAL AND FOOD SUSTAINABILITY

- Safety of the free land
- Sustainable use of the territory and zero soil consumption
- Reforestation of the urban land
A SHARED AND PARTICIPATED PROCESS: THE WEDNESDAY OF THE URBAN PLAN

I Mercoledì del Piano

Cinque incontri aperti al pubblico per approfondire i temi e raccogliere proposte sulla revisione del Piano Regolatore della Città di Torino
URBAN AGRICULTURE

2 millions sq m.
Urban gardens in the city

Calls are public and the Gardeners are selected according to their financial resources, age, personal and family conditions.
URBAN AGRICULTURE / SOCIAL GARDENS
URBAN AGRICULTURE / EDUCATIONAL GARDENS
URBAN AGRICULTURE / SHARED GARDENS

www.comune.torino.it/benicomuni/index.shtml

Food as a Common and the Shared management Pacts
A VISION FOR THE FUTURE:
TURIN AS A WORKSHOP OF SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT