MONDAY OCT. 7TH 2019

PRE-GATHERING DAY

Open sessions:
Two rooms of the Corum will be hosting in parallel experience-based presentations opened to the public, tackling various topical issues of urban food policies.

Closed sessions:
Two other rooms of the Corum will be hosting closed working sessions. If you wish to join them, please contact: milanpact@montpellier3m.fr

AFTERNOON Corum · Palais des Congrès · Esplanade Charles de Gaulle

OPEN SESSIONS

13:00 FOOD SYSTEMS DIALOGUE Discussions that encourage collective action to transform food systems

14:00 FOUNDATION RUAF AND HIVOS Sustainable diets, food laboratories and public policies. Lessons learned in African cities

15:00 ITALIAN NETWORK ON LOCAL FOOD POLICIES AND DUTCH NETWORK CITY DEAL FOOD ON THE URBAN AGENDA Strengthening food policies in European city networks: learning for experiences in Italy and the Netherlands

16:00 THE NATURAL RESOURCES DEFENSE COUNCIL (USA) Urban Food Waste Interventions: Progress and Lessons from the US

17:00 LET’S FOOD CITIES International cooperation for sustainable food systems: project presentation

18:00 CHAIR UNESCO WORLD FOOD SYSTEMS A world tour of urban food landscapes: Accra, Hanoi, Mexico, Montpellier, Nairobi

EVENING Hôtel de Ville de Montpellier, 1 place Georges Frêche

18:00 ROUND TABLE NUIT DE L’ALIMENTATION: «NGOS, RESEARCH, CITIES, HOW TO COOPERATE FOR SUSTAINABLE FOOD?»
Reyes Tirado, Senior research scientist at Greenpeace International, Ph.D Biology, University of Seville and Estación Experimental de Zonas Áridas in Almería, Spain, and fullbright postdoctoral fellowship at Stanford and Berkeley Universities in California, USA

Patrick Caron, President of Agropolis International, President of the High-Level Panel of Experts of the United Nation World Food Security Committee, Vice-President of the University of Montpellier

David Nabarro, Doctor and diplomat, special envoy of the United Nations Secretary-General Ban Ki Moon for the 2030 Agenda for sustainable development and climate change, co-facilitator of the working group on nature-based solutions for the United Nations Climate Action Summit

20:00 BUFFET

#actforasustainableworld