

The Cities Pledge on Food Justice – A response to the lessons of food insecurity during the pandemic.

Pledge:

“As city mayors, we are committed to addressing food justice by acknowledging that all our citizens irrespective of status are entitled to safe and nutritious food at all times. We recognise the benefits of a collaborative partnership to address the global challenge of food insecurity exacerbated by the COVID-19 pandemic, climate crisis and disaster displacement.”